DISMISS CASES VS. INDIANAPOLIS COAL INTERESTS

Indictments of Union Leaders and Certain Coal Companies Charged Conspiracy to Restrain Trade In Bituminous Coal

TESTIMONY SHOWS CHARGES ROSE FROM WAR PRESSURE

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 28—The department of justice announced today that attorney general Daugherty moved in Federal court at Indianapolis to dismiss indictments returned there against union leaders and certain corporations charging conspiracy to restrain trade in production and sale of bituminous coal. Careful investigation Daugherty told the court, strongly supported protests of defendants that many of the things complained of were in no small measure due to efforts of government officials during the war to bring about more intensive cooperation between operators, miners and railroads in production and transportation.

By Associated Press.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 28—Coal indictments referred to in Washington dispatches today were dismissed in Federal court here today on motion of attorney general Daugherty. The indictments were against two hundred and twenty-six coal operators, officials of United Mine Workers, and mining companies, returned in February, 1921.

Daugherty warned the defendants that they should not reach the conclusion that the government would allow crimes to be permitted. He said he lived a long time in the heart of the coal industry and knew "some of the things being undertaken and frequently perpetrated." He asserted he had "no hesitation in saying that usually many of the things agreed upon in meetings between operators and miners, but not often made public would constitute conspiracy."

LIQUOR OFFENDER PUNISHED FOR NOT APPEARING AT TRIAL

Tillman Epson, charged with having liquor in his possession, failed to appear for trial in police court Monday, thus forfeiting the $324 cash bond that he had made. The absent prisoner was tried, convicted and fined $300 and costs and sentenced to sixty days in jail. It is thought that he is now over in Tennessee.

On Saturday night, June 16, he was arrested by W. B. White, night patrolman and Herbert Ball, railroad officer. Abandoning his car on Fitzpatrick avenue after he was chased by the officers he ran into a swamp and did not come out until Herbert Ball fired a shot into the place of concealment. Near his car they had found a sack containing about four gallons of liquor in fruit jars one of which had been broken.

FALL FESTIVAL PLAN DISCUSSED BY MERCHANTS

Organization of Committees Completed —List of Prizes Complete Except in Home Economics Department

PRIZE LIST BOOKLETS TO BE PUT OUT SOON

Further organization for the Harvest Festival plans was completed at the Merchants' Association meeting Tuesday night. Reports were made by some of the committees.

G. H. Talbott, chairman of the membership committee, did not have any report to make as his committee had not, for various reasons, been functioning. S. M. Reams, chairman of the finance committee did not have any report to make, because its work was dependent on that of the membership committee.

The committee on prizes reported that the list is practically complete with the exception of the Home Economics department prizes a list of which will be made by competent women.

Announcement was made that N. P. Wise, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine company, would donate an eighty dollar sewing machine which will be awarded as a prize during the Festival. The question of soliciting manufacturers of other nationally advertised products to contribute merchandise for prizes was discussed. The manner of awarding the prizes has not been worked out but it is understood that they will be in the nature of attendance prizes. A vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Wise for his donation.

Prize list booklets will be printed as soon as possible, it was announced. They will contain forty pages each, half of which will be advertising matter.

Organization of committees was completed as follows: Booths, F. R. Whalin, chairman; W. D. Motch and L. D. Rouser; Entertainment, L. D. Hill, chairman, C. O. Brown and Carlisle Shelbrune; Executive, W. S. Anderson H. H. Overton and W. V. Tennent; Advertising, Robt. L. Kincaid, chairman, G. H. Talbott and H. H. Overton; Display, T. H. Campbell, H. E. Verran and George Callison; Tent and Equipment, J. W. Allison, chairman, W. H. Gibson and H. C. Chappell; Finance, Hugh Allen, chairman, F. R. Whalin and L. D. Rouser. W. C. Stair, chairman of the information committee, will select the other members.

NEW INTEREST IN MERCHANTS ASS'N

All Members Have Paid Dues—Campaign Now On For New Members

A number of members of the Merchant's Association who have been rather dormant for some time are becoming enthusiastic over the proposed Harvest Festival. No better evidence of this newly awakened interest could be found than their unanimity in paying up their dues. The thirty-five members of the organization, a number of whom have not attended the meetings for some time, have paid their dues up to date, according to G. H. Talbott, chairman of the membership committee.

A vigorous campaign for new members will be inaugurated by the committee which is expected to result in the addition of many live and active merchants and business men to the association. This is a particularly propitious time for increasing the membership as practically all business men wish to have some part in the coming Festival.

CHINESE SURVIVORS OF SHIP FIGHT DEPORTED

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Fourteen of the Chinese survivors of the schooner Mary Beatrice, who arrived in New York with a weird tale of battle on the high seas, were part of a party of 104 of their countrymen who sailed today on the Momus for New Orleans, the first leg of their long journey back to China. All the Chinese were ordered deported when it was found they had been smuggled into America in violation of the immigration laws.

NO DECISION YET ON SHIP LIQUOR

Some Foreign Ship Lines Abandoning Carrying Intoxicants—May Save Situation

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 28—Treasury officials today again conferred over the proposal to apply confiscatory provisions to the Volstead act to liquor carrying in foreign steamships. It was indicated after the conference there would be no decision for the present. Reports from abroad indicated in some cases that foreign ship lines voluntarily were abandoning the policy of bringing intoxicants into American waters under seal and should this change become general it was pointed out there would be no need to resort to confiscatory measures.

SHOWS STRENGTH OF PROHIBITION

Commissioner Haynes' Report Encouraging to Advocates of Volstead Law

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 28—Commissioner Haynes in a statement today showing how the sponge of national prohibition had mopped up liquor supplies said the withdrawal of spirits during three years prohibition approximated eighty-two million, five hundred thousand gallons as against three hundred and thirty eight million gallons in the three previous pre-Volstead years. During the last ten months, Haynes said, liquor withdrawals were only about a third as much as was taken out in preceding years.

CHARGING GREEK WAITER MISTREATED HER, WOMAN TAKES TROUBLE TO LAW

Charging that Gus Barker, a Greek waiter, knocked her down and then kicked her, Mrs. Lillie Neely, dishwasher at the Wabash cafe, sobbed out her troubles at the city hall yesterday afternoon

Barker was present. He had not been arrested but had come of his own accord "to fix the matter up." He laughed heartily when the girl told how he had abused her. A bruise on her cheek and under her left eye indicated that she was telling the truth.

She is only eighteen years old but she has a husband who does not support her and she is compelled to "work like a dog," as she expressed it, to support her baby and mother. She has worked at the Wabash for two months during which time the man has continually abused her, she stated. The trouble arose over a petty quarrel. She alleges that Barker struck her in the face several times, shook her and knocked her over and kicked her. It was the facial bruise that caused the greater pain, she said

Policemen tried to procure a warrant for Barker's arrest but somehow they failed to get it. An attorney who was present at the city hall took the matter in his own hands and made an affidavit which the girl took to a magistrate for a warrant.

Barker was arrested on the warrant by a deputy sheriff. The case against him was dismissed in police court this morning, because, as Chief H. E. Ball stated afterwards, the case would be prosecuted before the magistrate. The defendant did not make the $500 appearance bond and the $1000 peace bond and will be held in jail until his trial before Magistrate Charles G. Smyth at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning

WORK ON LOCAL STREETS BEGINS

Digging Storm Sewer This Morning—Cumberland Avenue Construction To Be Pushed

Long delayed construction work on Middlesboro streets began this morning.

A small crew of men, directed by Herbert Kidd, engineer, began by digging a storm sewer on the north side of Cumberland avenue between Twentieth and Nineteenth streets.

The large scarifying machine which will be used to tear up the present surface paving has not arrived here yet but it is expected this week. Two road rollers and concrete mixers are here. The work will be pushed now just as rapidly as possible, the business section of Cumberland avenue being improved first.

I intend to do a job here that Middlesboro people will be proud of," declared Mr. Kidd.

PLANS MADE FOR EAST END WORK

Complete Specifications to Be Sent On Construction Before July 4

A letter from L. L. Pearsall, engineer of design of the State Highway Commission, was received yesterday stating that complete plans for the construction work on Fitzpatrick and East Cumberland avenue would be sent here on or before July 4.

The letter was in answer to recent requests that the plans and specifications be returned here so that the work may begin as early as possible. After the plans are returned the city council will take action before anything further can be done.

Darkness Here and Nothing More When K. U. Balks

Harking back to the days when street lights were impossible on account of the reckless spirit and steady aim of the frontier, gun-toting citizens, Middlesboro was in darkness last night.

Men and women groped through the Stygian darkness on Cumberland avenue, slowly, lest they run into a friend—or a stranger—along the way. In the business places the darkness was relieved by the ancient, though reliable candle.

There were no movies for the silent drama is composed entirely of K. U. current. The tent show did not give a performance as it has long since ceased to carry its own lighting equipment. It was regular prayer meeting night, however, and hundreds of persons decided they could worship as well by candle light as any. All the churches this condition doubtless being largely due to lack of opposition by the more worldly forms of entertainment.

A dance at the Boonewar Inn was well attended. Myriads of candles furnished sufficient illumination to cast a soft and mellow light upon feminine guests, displaying to perfection their pulchritudinous complexions and gorgeous gowns. The affair seemed more like a Colonial ball than one of modern times

All things considered, local people managed splendidly and no one was seriously inconvenienced for lack of lights. The cause of the damage being the fault of no one, the K. U. company was not blamed. Indeed it was a good advertisement of their service, since people here now more fully realize

BRUNT OF STORM ROSE HILL AND PINEVILLE GET

Wind And Rain Do Serious Damage To Property, Crops and Fruit—Telephone And Telegraph Service Impaired

UNCONFIRMED REPORT OF DAMAGE IN WALLINS

Reports of devastation by the fierce wind storm yesterday afternoon continue to come in. Though Rose Hill seems to have been hit by the hardest part of the wind, some property damages were done at Pineville.

Some residence houses were damaged, according to reports, but none seems to have been completely destroyed. A sedan belonging to Tom Woolem was completely demolished by a tree twisted off and hurled with great force on the car. No one was in the vehicle at the time. Ernest Southers, driver of a Pineville bus, says his car was hemmed in by two fallen trees yesterday afternoon and that it required some time to cut and remove the tree trunks.

Telephone and telegraph service was impaired at Pineville as it was here.

Some almost unbelievable eccentricities of the wind are reported at Rose Hill. The roof of a store building belonging to W. J. Beatty, was torn from the house and carried more than fifty feet by the wind. Trees are said to have travelled through the skies like aeroplanes. A large hole was torn in the McLin residence, a sturdy brick building.

The inhabitants of the little Virginia town were thrown into a panic by the sudden catastrophe. The creaking of the rending buildings, the fearful howls of the wind and the moans of the frightened people were intermingled. J. W. Crawford, driver of a Rose Hill bus, was at the place during the storm. His car was not damaged but other automobiles are said to have been carried hundreds of feet along the road by the wind.

Crops and fruit trees were seriously damaged by the storm. Hundreds of trees were torn from the ground and corn and wheat in the fields were flattened by the wind.

An unconfirmed report from Wallins Creek indicates that a house containing a whole family was turned over and rolled down a hill by the wind. Some of the children were reported injured.

KLAN TAKES IN 100 MORE MEN

Invisible Empire Extends Strength at Meeting Held At Brewery Last Night

Over one hundred men became subjects of the Invisible Empire at a meeting which was held at the Brewery last night. The meeting was one of the best attended of any secret meeting that the Ku Klux Klan has ever held here.

An organizer was present who made a speech on similar lines that other speakers of the organization have made at previous meetings. He was not the man who spoke here at the public meeting Sunday, however. All men present being in sympathy with the cause, the address was well received.

The Klan now uses the Brewery regularly for its secret meetings. Strenuous efforts are being made to increase the membership by men who early became interested in the order.

CHARGES HIS ATTACKERS WERE MEMBERS OF KLAN

WILLIAMSPORT, Md., June 28—Charging that the leaders of the mob who attacked and attempted to lynch him Saturday night were members of the Ku Klux Klan, William Hurd, prominent Williamsport druggist, who confessed he, too, was a member of the invisible empire, was being closely guarded today by the authorities after he secured bail for his release from jail where he had been taken on a charge of assault.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Public sentiment "will tolerate no suspension of anthracite coal supply this year," the Federal Coal Commission today informed a convention of union miners now in session at Scranton, Pa., considering new wage demands. In a letter signed by John Hays Hammond, commission's chairman, miners were urged to seek an understanding with operators and particularly the convention was asked to "leave all questions open," for negotiations in committee.

By Associated Press

SCRANTON, June 28.—It was said at the miners' convention here today there was a disposition to demand twenty per cent increase for contract miners and a dollar a day increase for men paid by the day. These are principal things contended for in the long strike last year.

STREET CONSTRUCTION FINALLY BEGUN

Just as all hope seemed lost after the darkest night the city has known in months, Middlesboro people came down town this morning to find that reconstruction work had already begun on Cumberland avenue! A crew of men were at work, machinery was being assembled and the engineer in charge, assured investigators that his company meant to push the whole business to a speedy finish.

We have kicked and fussed and fumed about streets in Middlesboro for so long that it is hard to believe our eyes and ears when we find that work has really started and that our city is in a fair way to having a splendid street system within the next year. This will of course depend on the action to be taken on the elusive East End question but assurance has been given that specifications from the state will be here by July 1 with nothing left to be done but to advertise for bids.

Then we can surely sit back with pardonable pride. With Cumberland avenue, a beautiful broad smooth highway from mountain to mountain all cross streets on the north side anyway well paved with the road to the Junction likely to be improved during the next few months, surely no city has more right to boast of its streets.

EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS

English bootleggers bringing liquor within the territorial waters of the United States are not arrested because the federal authorities think such deeds are a part of the functions of the customs service, but might bring a charge of breach between this country and England. Authorities of the two countries are considering the wisdom of giving customs officers here the right to make arrests in cases of this kind as in other cases of smuggling into this country. The fact that there is no law against the liquor traffic in England is no defense to be set up with a Uncle Sam jury of 12.

Despite the fact that the high cost of living is becoming a thing of the past, there is one item that has been climbing by leaps and bounds and that is the amount of money that the average person has to pay for the privilege of getting himself buried. Undertakers from coast to coast are reporting an increase in business and the average funeral bill is now around $500. Many cemetery lots are being sold for $1000 and more. Evidently the undertaker is the only one who is getting rich these days.

Five bandits held up a crowd of men and got over $50,000 in the heart of Chicago in broad daylight. Many times as much has been stolen by bandits in Wall street and there is much talk of hiring Jack Dempsey to go after them. Maybe Jack could take the whole gang.

England and France each burdened with the burden of war debts are planning an invasion of Germany, who has a population of about 60,000,000 people, to collect the debts. Germany has a population of about 60,000,000 people, to collect the debts. Germany has a population of about 60,000,000 people, to collect the debts.

REASON ENOUGH

❖ ❖ ❖ ❖ By Berton Braley ❖ ❖ ❖ ❖

Impulsive and capricious
With moods you cannot guess
But whimsical delicious
In her capricious mess
You ask her why she's flouting
All logic rules and laws
She answers pertly pouting
Just because!

One moment she's all laughter
An imp on flying feet
And then the moment after
She's shy demure and sweet
She's changeful as a season
Of sun and snow and thaws
With this her only reason
Just because!

She'll lead the man she marries
A very hectic life
With all the swift vagaries
With which her ways are rife
One can't be certain of her
She's full of faults and flaws
And yet—and yet I love her
Just because!

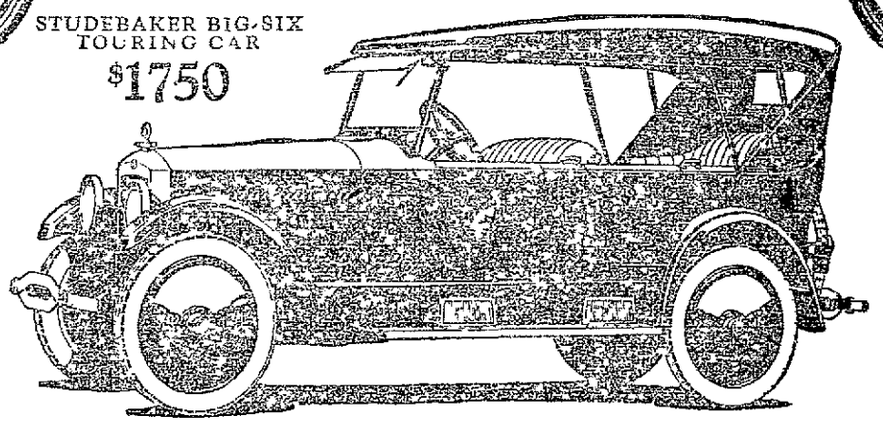
STUDEBAKER BIG-SIX TOURING CAR
$1750



You Can Buy More Weight—But You Won't Find a Better Car

In the Studebaker Big Six you get all the performance, all the comfort, and all the dependability that any car can give—at a price that smaller producers cannot even approach.

The Big Six Touring is a seven passenger car with a seven passenger motor and seven passenger dimensions throughout. It distinctly is not a seven-passenger body mounted on a five-passenger chassis.

The Big Six will take the steepest hills on high. It will maintain a high rate of speed over long stretches hour after hour. No car provides more restful riding—none is easier to operate. None is freer from frequent repairs.

Equipment is complete, even to an extra wheel with tire, tube and tire cover.

Its low price is due to large volume and to the fact that Studebaker overhead is shared by three models—all sixes. Then, too, only one manufacturing profit is included in the Big-Six price because all vital parts are manufactured in Studebaker plants.

If you spend more than the Big-Six price you can buy more weight and bulkiness and pay more for overhead and operation, but you will not get a better automobile.

Studebaker has been building quality vehicles for 71 years.

THE CHURCHYARD

One night, when silence reigned around,
I heard sweet music rise,
Whose harp-like and harmonious sound
Came from the star-decked skies.

And when had died each silver tone,
Thy spirit passed away,
And left me a sad mourner lone
On this dark earth to stay.

My sister, may it ever be
That from thy home on high
A hymn of peace may check in me
Each dark rebellious sigh.

Then, sister, shall I truly know
That mansion's of the blest
Wait, till from weariness below,
My spirit enters rest!

—Charlotte Bronte.

HEAR REPORTS ON CONVENTION

Smyth and Zimmerman Give Interest-in Talks On Meeting In May

Reports of the Kiwanis International Convention held at Atlanta the last of May were given at the Kiwanis meeting today by the delegates who represented this club there, C. G. Smyth and T. C. Zimmerman. Both of the talks were interesting, bringing to the other members, in a measure, the spirit of the great convention.

"Never in my life have I come in contact with such a group of broad-minded educated and worthwhile men," declared Mr. Smyth. "The wonderful part about it, too, was to think that they had gathere there from every corner of the United States and Canada for he single purpose of making the world a better place to live in by their observance of the golden rule and their promotion of help for the under-privileged child."

Mr. Smyth touched on several high points of the convention, speaking first of the singing under the direction of Jules Brazil, who has halfway promised to come to the Middlesboro convention. He said that he would be sure twice as many persons would come to this convention if they knew he would be present. In connection with the singing, he said each club was urged to have from six to ten minutes singing every meeting, being sure, however, to omit all reference to home brew or anything of the kind in their songs.

The under-privileged child movement, Mr. Smyth said, was emphasized as the one big objective of the Kiwanis Club now, and he urged that the Middlesboro club take up the matter more seriously. There is already a standing committee on this.

Mr. Zimmerman, following Mr. Smyth, went over practically the same ground, declaring first and last, the inspiration of the international convention, and saying that any one who attended was bound to get the spirit and to come away a better man for having been there. He spoke of District-President Gilbert's splendid address on the importance of getting the farmer and the city dweller together. Mr. Zimmerman spoke enthusiastically, too, about Jules Brazil.

Mr. Zimmerman was chairman of the meeting today. P. M. Parsons drew the attendance prize. Hugh Allen announced the lumbermen's convention here two weeks from today and asked the Kiwanians to lend their cars for the occasion. Mr. Liebig read part of a letter from Mr. Gilbert, urging that the extensive "kidding" of speakers, especially local members, be done away with. Mr. Liebig requested the members to observe this in the future.
